is what interests the bulk of the buying public. When they find where they can save money or make a dollar, they are at once interested. Our desire is to save dollars for those who shop here.

We are ever glad of our ability and always anxious for opportunities continually to demonstrate our "lower than elsewhere prices."

Your final chance to capture the bargains in summer goods.

Everything must make way for our fall stocks—nothing has escaped the price reduction. Perhaps a year—maybe more—will elapse before you'll be offered to choose from a big store full of dependable goods at the prices at which they're marked now.

FAIR POULTRY SHOW ONE OF THE BEST FEATURES

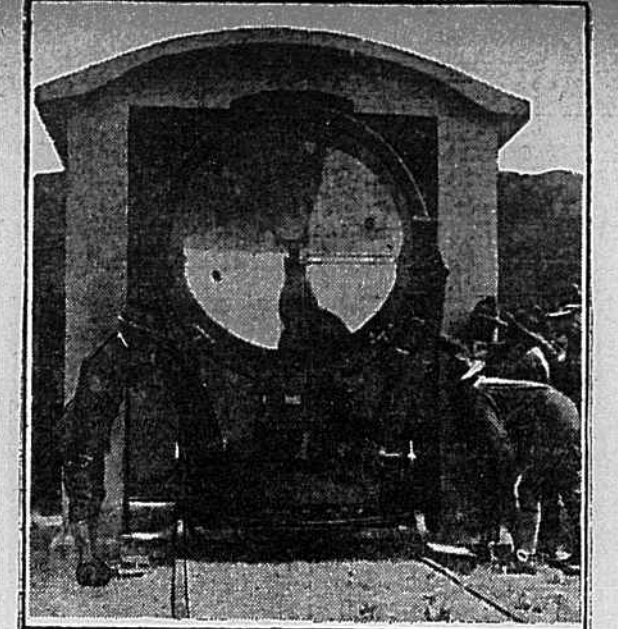

Was Confined to Local Fanciers Entirely This Year.

This year one of the most meritorious of the features of the Fair is the poultry show. It is entirely a local exhibit but Judge I. M. Farber, of Sandusky, Ohio, an expert of wide experience and national reputation, declared last evening after he had completed the work of examining the individual exhibits that it was one of the best shows he had ever seen at a fair made up entirely of local exhibitors.

- The Fair association has encouraged the local poultry fanciers in every way possible and it is the belief, based upon the showing made this week that the Marion county poultry raisers have as good as the best of them. It is hoped that next year more of them will exhibit. Judge Farber gave entire satisfaction. His findings are as follows:

BOYS LEARN HOW TO OPERATE UNCLE SAM'S GIANT SEARCH LIGHT

The biggest searchlight in the United States is in use at Fort Terry, Plum Island, N. Y., where several hundred boys from all parts of the country are being put through military training. The searchlight is five feet in diameter and throws rays three miles.

WASHINGTON NEWS GOSSIP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—Congressman Sutherland was at the Pension Bureau today in the interest of Mrs. Rachel M. Rosenberg, of Morgantown, whose husband, John B. Rosenberg, a pensioner, died recently. He requested that her application be considered at once and that she be placed on the rolls for $12 a month, the usual amount in such cases. While there he also called up the claim for an increase filed by J. W. Thompson, of Naugatuck, Mingo county, and urged immediate action.

The Postoffice Department on yesterday, upon request of Congressman Neely, ordered two special agents to go to Fairmont and make a survey of the city mail routes with a view to rearranging them to improve the service and to ascertain if additional carriers were needed in that city to handle the growing business. The Department also entered an order, which will become effective next Monday, extending rural route No. 3 from Riverdale to take in 25 families who are not now being served with mail from that route. Also, the Department promises to take up at once a request by Major Neely to supply A. J. Ross and other petitioners with city mail delivery.

E. C. Fearnow, of Morgan county, has been promoted by the United States Fish Commissioner to the position of superintendent of the car and messenger service of the Bureau of Fisheries. Both Congressmen Bowers and Sutherland gave him strong endorsements. Col. Bowers speaking in especially high terms of Mr. Fearnow's efficiency, he having served under Col. Bowers when he was United States Fish Commissioner.

On motion of Majority Leader Kitchin in the House yesterday an hour's time was granted Congressman Neely to address the House next Friday morning. This will be the carefully prepared campaign speech which Mr. Neely was to have delivered ten days ago, but did not. Other time arrangements interfering. It is the speech, too, which is expected to be the basis of Neely's speaking campaign in the First district and is expected to indicate fairly well what line of argument

Evening Chat

At a local playhouse this week a very excellent musical comedy company presented the plot of what in its day was a gem among light operas. Of course, the tunes and the "augmented" chorus was missing.

But there's a reason. Theatrical promoters are purveyors to the tastes, likes and even whims of the amusement patrons. It is their business to please, and to gain this end all else is thrown to the winds. They aim to give the public what it wants, and it stands as a sorrowful indictment to the tastes of the present generation of theatre-goers, that the management of the company in point was deterred from giving the music along with the plot, for no other reason than a fear that "the audience wouldn't like it."

"Wouldn't appreciate it," is probably what he meant. And his timidity was evidently well founded. Forsyth, did not the writer sit "way up front" and hear the witty repartee of "Beppo" and "Rocco" and the King each with all the characteristics of real comic opera stars, even to the "bumps" on Rocco's slender legs?

And did not the audience allow one "funny" thing after another to be said and done without even a show of comprehension?

And "Betty," the herder of turkeys, in her charms as the "mascot" was apparently not even understood. This happened in Fairmont, but the same thing happens whenever and wherever an esthetic manager thinks only of the purely wholesome, witty musical entertainment of a score of years ago and tries to present them to a generation that has too long been afflicted with rag-time, slapstick, coarse and sometimes even vulgar comedy.

De Wolfe Hopper is now in the movies, but nothing he can do there will ever charm like his comic opera parts. Spencer, Gilbert and Sullivan and a whole catalog of the like and their works are in this day figuratively "dead ones."

"You Must Ask of the Man in the Moon," a tuneful topical number had the country by the ears in the days of "Wang."

It was rendered in a very creditable way by members of the company here this week, but "Bill Bailey," or "Bom Bom Bay" would have "went" better. Failure has attended the efforts of managers to revive some of the good ones of days gone by, and the comedy of today is therefore evidently what the people want and pay for.

"Everybody to their taste," is what the old lady said when she kissed the cow, but for me—

Viva "La Mascot!" OLD STAGER.

Tomorrow morning at three o'clock, the planet Saturn, will be occulted by the moon, according to Rev. Edward Weber, Wheeling amateur astronomer. The moon will then be past its last quarter and will occult the planet shortly after it rises. Occultation is the same as an eclipse.

It is not very often that we have an eclipse of a planet or of a first magnitude star at a favorable time for observation. At about ten minutes after three the moon will appear to blot out Saturn from the sky and it will remain obscured until four o'clock. The length of time which it will take the moon to pass by the planet.

The last occultation was that of Mars on January 28, 1912, and the last time that Saturn was eclipsed was on July 10, 1900.

Record Breaker.
"Maggie," said the inexperienced young thing to the cook, "the biscuits were a sight. If you can't do better next time I will have to discharge you." "Ye will, will ye? I'll have ye know, mum, that I've been workin' out for two years, an' I've worked for 80 at the best families in town, an' I ain't ever bin discharged yet. I'm lavin' this afternoon for a better place."

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Fairmont people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn glycerine, etc., as mixed in A. Adler-Ika often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such a prising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-Ika has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. Martin's Drug Store.

"Good, Isn't It, Grandpa?"

"Yes, Sonny Postum is good and much better for you than coffee—you'll know why, sometime. In fact, children should never drink coffee or tea—and most grown ups would be better off without either."

"In coffee and tea there's a drug that is harmful, especially for children, and it often causes troublesome conditions in older folks."

Steinway & Sons

The World's Best Piano

We beg to advise our customers, that on the first day of September prices will be advanced on all Steinway pianos. The advance varies from $75 up, according to style of instrument.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a Steinway piano, we would advise you to take advantage of the new prevailing prices, as it is hardly probable that Steinway pianos will ever again be sold at the prices now quoted.

The Price of The Steinway Pianos is uniform throughout the United States, no dealer is permitted to offer these instruments for sale at prices differing from those fixed by Messrs. Steinway and sons.

The Steinway

is the highest priced instrument at wholesale that money can buy, and the margin of profit to the dealer is the smallest of any piano manufactured in the world.

To Protect Our Customers

We placed an enormous order for Steinway Pianos and can supply our trade during August at the old prices. As only a few days are left, it is much to your interest to act promptly. We are glad to furnish you with catalogues, and give you both the old and the new price list, by comparing them, you can readily see the advantage of buying now. We will make very favorable terms, and allow fair values for other instruments taken in trade.
